Instructions

Sew squares and rectangles into rows using a 1/4" seam allowance as shown in photo. Rows one and four are four 4" squares. Rows two and three are one 2" x 4" rectangle, four 4" squares and one 2" x 4" rectangle.

Press row seams in opposite directions.

Sew rows together, matching seams and using a 1/4" seam allowance. Seams should butt together perfectly because they were pressed in opposite directions.

Place the patchwork on top of the batting.

Optional: Quilt as desired for a little added texture. This will add an interesting detail.

Make the template following the instructions on the template pages. Place the template on top of the quilted patchwork. Following template, cut out the quilted patchwork piece. Line up the center of the template with the center seam of the quilted patchwork. Place dots at the start and end points.

Hint: Using a small rotary cutter for this step will make the cutting easier.

Place the template on the Minkie and cut out.

Place the gusset right sides together on the patchwork piece. Leaving a tail of approximately 5" of gusset, start pinning at the start dot made previously.

Pin the gusset around half of the patchwork piece.

Beginning at the marked starting point, stitch around half of the quilted patchwork piece using a 1/2" seam allowance.

Hint: On the inside curve, stitch a few stitches at a time and then reposition the fabric to ease around the curve.

Pin the remainder of the gusset to the rest of the quilted patchwork piece, stopping at the marked end point.

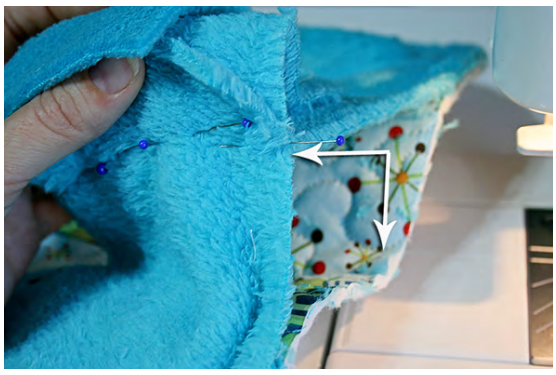

Fold each end of the gusset so they meet in the center and pin into place.

Open the folds and pin the two ends together where they meet at the folds.

Lift the end of the gusset away from the quilted patchwork piece.

Stitch along the pinned line. Trim seam allowance.

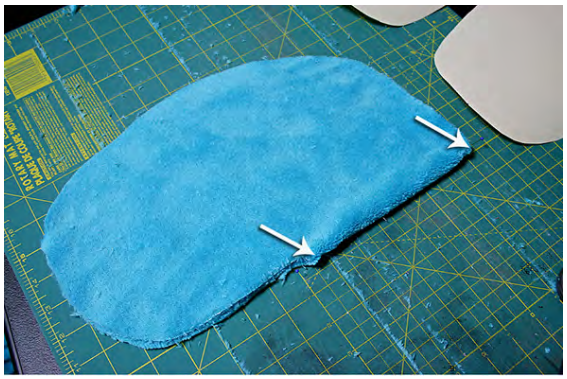

Stitch the rest of the gusset to the quilted patchwork piece.

Clip the curve of the inside tight curve by making 'V' notches up to, but not through the stitched seam line.

Fold the Minkie backing in half at the center and put a pin in the top and bottom of the fold line.

Place the quilted patchwork with the attached gusset on the table. The wrong side should be facing down.

Place the Minkie backing on top, matching centers.

Pin the Minkie backing to the gusset all the way around. Sew the Minkie backing to the gusset using a 1/2" seam allowance, from the marked starting point to the marked ending point.

Clip the small inside curve the same way as done previously.

Turn the piece right side out through the opening.
